Mother Tongue by Patricia Forde - €8.99

After global warming came the Melting. Then came Ark. The new dictator of Ark wants to silence speech for ever. But Letta is the wordsmith, tasked with keeping words alive. Out in the woods, she and the rebels secretly teach children language, music and art. Now there are rumours that babies are going missing. When Letta makes a horrifying discovery, she has to find a way to save the children of Ark – even if it is at the cost of her own life.

Jemima Small Versus the Universe by Tamsin Winter - €10.95

Jemima Small is funny and smart. She knows a lot of things. Like the fact that she's made of 206 bones, over 600 muscles and trillions of cells. What she doesn't know is how that can be true and yet she can still sometimes feel like nothing... Or how being made to join the school's "special" healthy lifestyle group – aka Fat Club – could feel any less special. But Jemima also knows that the biggest stars in the universe are the brightest. And maybe it's her time to shine.

The Boy Who Flew by Fleur Hitchcock - €9.60

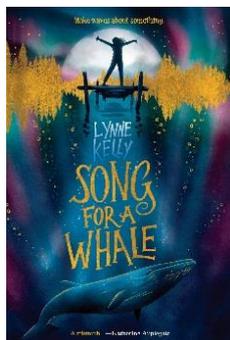

When his friend, Mr Chen, is murdered, Athan Wilde must stop the flying machine they were building from falling into the wrong hands. But keeping the machine safe puts his family in terrible danger. Athan faces a dreadful choice – flight or family? Which one will he pick?

A Curse So Dark And Lonely by Brigid Kemmerer - €10.95

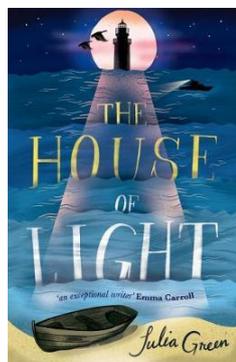

Prince Rhen, the heir to Emberfall is cursed. Forced to repeat the autumn of his eighteenth year over and over, he can only be freed if a girl truly falls for him, and after so many failures his kingdom and its people are barely holding on.

Harper's life has never been easy, but she's learned to be tough enough to survive the streets of Washington, DC. When she is sucked into Rhen's world, nothing is as it seems.

Song for A Whale by Lynne Kelly €9.45

Twelve-year-old Iris is a tech genius and loves fixing things. But she's the only deaf person in her school, so people often treat her like she's not very smart. When she learns about Blue 55, a real whale who is unable to communicate with other whales, Iris understands how he must feel. She works on a foolproof plan to help the whale, but she soon realises that it is not enough: she wants to find Blue 55 herself. Iris is about to go on the biggest road trip of her life.

The House of Light by Julia Green - €9.50

It's always been Bonnie and Granda, living off the land, keeping to themselves and out of trouble. Until one day, Bonnie goes scavenging on the beach and finds a battered rowing boat and a bare-footed boy. He's cold, hungry and in need of shelter. Bonnie knows it's a crime to help this strange boy but she can't leave him for the border guards to find.

The Maze Runner by James Dashner - €10.95

When the lift cranks open, the only thing Tomas remembers is his first name. But he's not alone – an army of boys welcomes him to the Glade, an encampment at the centre of a terrible maze. The Gladers have no idea why they're there, or what's happened to the world outside. All they know is that every morning when the walls slide back, they will risk everything to find out.

Five Feet Apart by Rachael Lippincott €10.95

Stella Grant needs to stay away from anyone or anything that might jeopardize her chance of a lung transplant. Six feet apart. No exceptions. Will Newman couldn't care less about his treatments, or a fancy new clinical drug trial. Soon, he'll turn eighteen and then he'll be able to unplug all these machines and actually go see the world. Will's exactly what Stella needs to stay away from. If he so much as breathes on Stella she could lose her spot on the transplant list. Either one of them could die. The only way to stay alive is to stay apart. But suddenly six feet doesn't feel like safety. It feels like punishment.

Undercover Princess by Connie Glynn - €10.95

Lottie Pumpkin is an ordinary girl who longs to be a princess. Ellie Wolf is a princess who longs to be ordinary. When the two girls end up in the same dorm at Rosewood Hall boarding school, they make the decision to swap identities. But someone seems to have figured out what they've done and – as Lottie quickly learns – life at Rosewood is much more complicated than in the fairy tales she loves...

Stormbreaker (Alex Rider) by Anthony Horowitz - €9.99

Fourteen-year-old Alex Rider is forcibly recruited into MI6. Armed with secret gadgets, he is sent to investigate Herod Sayle, a man who is offering state-of-the-art Stormbreaker computers to every school in the country. But the teenage spy soon finds himself in mortal danger.

Everything, Everything by Nicola Yoon - €10.95

Maddy is allergic to the world; stepping outside the sterile sanctuary of her home could kill her. But then Olly moves in next door. And just like that, Maddy realizes there's more to life than just being alive. You only get one chance at first love. And Maddy is ready to risk everything, everything to see where it leads.

Field Notes on Love by Jennifer E. Smith - €10.95

It's the perfect idea for a romantic week together: travelling across America by train. But then Hugo's girlfriend dumps him. Her parting gift: the tickets for their long-planned last-hurrah-before-uni trip. Only, it's been booked under her name. Non-transferable, no exceptions. When Mae stumbles across Hugo's ad for a replacement for Margaret Campbell (her full name!), she's certain it's exactly the adventure she needs to get over being rejected from film school.
